II. How to Apply for Scholarships

Category A and B:

If you want to apply for a scholarship category "A" or "B", please complete IUJ Admission Online System (<http://www.iuj.ac.jp/admis/online/>). Please respond to all questions inputting your answers directly into the online forms. If this is not possible in your location, contact the admission staff at admgsir@iuj.ac.jp for GSIR or admgsim@iuj.ac.jp for GSIM.

IUJ will allocate the appropriate scholarships to successful applicants who submit all completed application documents for 2013 admission including this scholarship application form by the deadline of admission application.

Category C:

For category "C" scholarships, contact the institutes or offices concerned to begin the application process.

III. Guidelines for Scholarships

A-1: S. Nakayama Memorial Scholarship

IUJ provides a limited number of scholarships for newly enrolling international students to support their IUJ studies with the expectation that they will also be active participants in support of the local community and gain a good understanding of the Japanese society. These scholars are expected to develop leadership skills and then contribute to the international society in a leadership role upon graduation. Priority for this scholarship is for those excellent academic performances and in financial need.

Conditions for two-year programs (IRP, IDP, PMPP and MBA)

- IUJ-A: Partial Exemption of Admission Fee: 250,000 yen (out of a total admission fee of 300,000yen)
Exemption of Tuition: 1,900,000 yen
Stipend: 100,000 yen per month, including an allowance for the dormitory fee
- IUJ-B: Partial Exemption of Admission Fee: 250,000 yen (out of a total admission fee of 300,000yen)

C-1: Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Asia (JISPA)

- IMF has designated four Japanese universities to participate in partnership with JISPA. IUJ, with its Master of Arts in Economics, is one of these.
- The JISPA targets highly motivated government officials who may serve as future macroeconomic policy makers with the capacity and vision to contribute effectively to the economic development of their countries. Scholarship awards are made on the basis of the candidate's academic record and work background, mathematical and statistics skills, English language proficiency, and potential for contributing to the macroeconomic and financial management and economic development of their country. The assessment also includes qualities such as the candidate's commitment to public service, willingness to learn, and openness to new ideas. Currently, the JISPA is open to qualified candidates from the following countries:

Bangladesh	Bhutan	Cambodia	China	India
Indonesia	Kazakhstan	Kyrgyz Republic	Lao P.D.R.	Malaysia
Maldives	Mongolia	Myanmar	Nepal	Pacific Island Countries
Papua New Guinea	Philippines	Sri Lanka	Tajikistan	Thailand
Timor-Leste	Turkmenistan	Uzbekistan	Vietnam

- The deadline for Partnership Track applications is the beginning of December of each year.
- For further information on the JISPA and to obtain an application, see the IMF website at <http://www.imf.org/external/oap/partguide.htm> or contact the IMF resident representative offices in the relevant countries, or contact:

C-2: Japanese Grant Aid for Human Resource Development Scholarship (JDS) Program

- The JDS Program is to provide nationals of Bangladesh, Cambodia, Kyrgyz, Laos, Mongolia, Myanmar, Philippines, Sri Lanka, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan and Ghana with opportunities for academic research at Japanese higher educational institutions under the Grant Aid assistance by Government of Japan.
- The main objective of the JDS Program is to support human resource development in each participating country by fostering young government officials who are expected to facilitate the social and economic development of their countries in the 21st century. Another aim is for JDS Fellows, because of their experience in Japan, to contribute to broaden and enhance the foundation for bilateral relations between their countries and Japan.
- JDS Fellows are expected to acquire specialist knowledge not only for individual capacity building but also for social capacity building and to engage actively and practically in addressing the social and economic development issues in their countries.

The JDS fellows have been sent to the IRP, IDP, PMPP and MBA Programs at IUJ. For further information on the JDS and to obtain an application, contact the JICA/JICE regional offices or your government in the relevant countries
